

WINTER WHEAT

fun facts:

In Ohio wheat is traditionally planted in the fall to be harvested when it turns golden brown the following July .

Wheat has been part of the human diet for at least 9,000 years.

Kernels harvested from one acre of wheat can be turned into 1,500 loaves of bread.

SUPPORT

Medina agriculture.
BUY LOCAL.

MEDINA COUNTY
FARM BUREAU

medina.offbf.org
(330) 263-7456

facebook.com/MedinaFarmBureau

